

112 District Exit Outcomes

All Graduates of the Oregon School District are expected to demonstrate mastery of the exit outcomes.

Exit Outcomes

The learner will Demonstrate Skills Necessary to be a quality producer.

- Communicate effectively using a variety of media
- Demonstrate use of appropriate technology
- Demonstrate cooperative and independent work skills

The learner will demonstrate proficiency in problem solving and critical thinking.

- Identify problems and set goals
- Gather and analyze relevant information
- Critically evaluate information
- Develop strategies for attaining goals
- Implement selected strategy
- Evaluate process and results

The learner will demonstrate skills and understanding necessary to contribute to local and global communities.

- Understand the importance of individual differences and cultural diversity
- Understand the importance of responsible citizenship
- Understand the importance of environmental responsibility

The learner will develop a substantial knowledge base in essential skills.

- Demonstrate proficiency in academic skills including the arts
- Demonstrate proficiency in living skills
- Demonstrate proficiency in employment skills
- Demonstrate proficiency in technological skills.

The learner will demonstrate skills that foster continued personal growth, learning, responsibility and accountability.

- Set and strive to attain challenging personal, career, and educational goals
- Anticipate and accept consequences of her/his actions

Developed: January 11, 1994

CCC Revised: March 2, 1994

March 21, 2004

Recommended to the Board of Education

By Exit Outcomes Committee: March 8, 1994

Approved by Board of Education May 9, 1994

Reaffirmed by the Board of Education: September 2003