

Name: _____

Hour: _____

Internal Conflict Essay Peer Edit Sheet

Writer:

Editor:

Check the rough draft that you are peer editing for the following:

1. Does the introduction clearly introduce the concept of internal conflict and how it relates to the novel?

Yes No

Provide Examples:

2. Is the last sentence of the introduction the thesis?

Yes No

Is the thesis statement a complete sentence that clearly centers around internal conflict and its use in the novel?

1st or 2nd person point of view?

Yes No

Write thesis here:

3. Does each body paragraph begin with an assertion/topic sentence?

Yes No

Write the assertions/topic sentences here:

1.

2.

3.

4. How many pieces of textual evidence does the essay contain in each body paragraph? Copy an example from the essay.

5. Does each body paragraph explain a different use of internal conflict in the novel?

Yes No

Please list the 3 examples of internal conflict here:

1.

2.

3.

Are all of the examples truly internal conflicts? How do you know for sure?

6. Is the textual evidence formatted correctly? Punctuation?

Yes No

Please copy a correctly formatted citation from the paper here:

Or fix or edit the mistakes in an incorrectly formatted citation from the paper here:

7. Does the conclusion restate the thesis and 3 assertions and create a sense of closure for the reader?

Yes No

8. Writing Mechanics (With a highlighter or pencil):

Mark any spelling, punctuation errors in the paper, and then provide ideas for corrections.

Mark any sentence fragments, run-ons, awkward or unclear sentences in the paper, and then provide ideas for corrections.

Mark any uses of CONTRACTIONS in the paper.

Mark any uses of 1st or 2nd person (I, You, etc.) in the paper, and then provide ideas for corrections.

11. What is your overall impression of this paper?

*Please comment here