

Nondiscrimination Notice

The Oregon School District is an equal opportunity employer. It conforms to all the laws, statutes, and regulations concerning equal employment opportunities and affirmative action. It strongly encourages women, minorities, individuals with disabilities and veterans to apply to all of its job openings. It is an equal opportunity employer, and does not discriminate on the basis of (and all qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to) race, creed, ancestry, color, religion, gender, sexual orientation, gender identity or preference, national origin, marital status, age, disability status, arrest or conviction record, genetic information & testing, family & medical leave, protected veteran status or any other category protected by law. It prohibits retaliation against individuals who bring forward any complaint, orally or in writing, to the employer or the government, or against any individuals who assist or participate in the investigation of any complaint or otherwise oppose discrimination.

Employees of the Oregon School District are required to comply with the provisions of Title VI of the Civil Rights Act and Title IX of the 1972 Educational Amendments.
