

Dear parents and guardians,

As part of our Research Skills Unit for English 10, we are asking students to read a human rights novel. Due to the, at times, disturbing nature of the human rights issues presented in these novels, we wanted you to take part in your son or daughter's novel choice. Please review the novel your child has brought home, and let us know if you feel this would be an appropriate novel choice. Students were given a number of different novels to choose from; however, if you feel the choice your child made is not appropriate, please let us know how you would like to proceed by checking the space which applies. Full novel descriptions can be found on teacher websites.

____ My student's novel choice is appropriate. _____
(Please include novel title above)

____ My student's novel choice is not appropriate, please send home a new option.

____ My student's novel choice is not appropriate, and we will find a new human rights novel on our own.

(student name)

(parent signature)

Dear parents and guardians,

As part of our Research Skills Unit for English 10, we are asking students to read a human rights novel. Due to the, at times, disturbing nature of the human rights issues presented in these novels, we wanted you to take part in your son or daughter's novel choice. Please review the novel your child has brought home, and let us know if you feel this would be an appropriate novel choice. Students were given a number of different novels to choose from; however, if you feel the choice your child made is not appropriate, please let us know how you would like to proceed by checking the space which applies.

____ My student's novel choice is appropriate. _____
(Please include novel title above)

____ My student's novel choice is not appropriate, please send home a new option.

____ My student's novel choice is not appropriate, and we will find a new human rights novel on our own.

(student name)

(parent signature)